

Where Do You Go From Here?

Your child has gotten a start on developing entertainment/presentation skills. How do you keep the momentum going? Here are some ideas.

After School Classes

Abra-Kid-Abra offers classes in magic, circus, comedy, balloon creations, & puppetry. For a listing of current classes, see our website, www.abrakid.com. Or check with your school. If you would like to have us offer an after school class at your school, call us at the number below.

Camps

We offer summer and winter break day camps in magic, circus, comedy, balloons, & puppetry throughout the St. Louis area. Camps are 1-2 weeks. The material is new each year, and different from our classes. Check www.abrakid.com, call us, or sign up for our periodic newsletter keeping you up to date on new offerings.

Magic Clubs

The International Brotherhood of Magicians and the Society of American Magicians each have chapters that meet regularly in St. Louis. If your child wants to further develop their magic beyond classes and camps, these are great vehicles. Check out: www.ibmring1.com and www.magicsam.com

Midwest Magic Jubilee

St. Louis is fortunate to host an annual magic convention, generally in August. www.mmjubilee.com
